Top Gear for '05

Our bowhunting expert picks
the 15 new products every archer should own BY TODD KUHN

Die-hard bowhunters are always searching for the gear that will give them the edge in the deer woods. But where do you start when there are so many products to choose from? Not to worry. We scoured the Archery Trade Manufacturer's show earlier this year and found 15 new items that are going to make filling your deer tag a lot easier this season.

★ 1 3-D OPTICS Alpen's Apex 8.5x50mm binocular provides quality optics at an affordable price. Multi-coated lenses, extra-long eye relief and large (50mm) objectives offer great light-gathering capacity for low-light hunting conditions. Crystal-clear glass delivers excellent resolution of fine details for 3-D competitors. ($543; 909-987-8370; alpenoutdoor.com)
